

RECOGNITION REQUIREMENTS FOR LEARN TO SWIM PROVIDERS

AUGUST 2024

Our Health Management Programs (claimable under certain extras products) allow eligible members with available limits to claim towards a consultation with an HCF-recognised Learn to Swim provider.

Learn to Swim providers must fulfil the criteria below in order to be recognised by HCF:

- Continuously hold a current First Aid Certificate (HLTAID011);
- Belong to one of the professional association bodies that meet our recognition requirements at the appropriate level of membership and adheres to the association membership requirements;
- Lessons are delivered in a commercial pool setting and do not include mobile services or private home pools;
- Services do not include recreational swimming, squads and competitive strokes, lifesaving skill courses or aquatic pool entrance fees;
- Comply with Terms and Conditions for HCF Recognised Providers of Extras Services as amended from time to time.

ASSOCIATION	LEVEL OF MEMBERSHIP
ASSA (Australian Swim School Association)	Member swim schools
AUSTSWIM	Registered swim centres
Royal Life Saving Society	Registered Swim and Survive partner
Swim Australia	Registered swim centres

Benefits are payable towards recognised learn to swim schools at the completion of the lessons.
